(AFILIADA A LA FEDERATION CYNOLOGIQUE INTERNATIONALE)

Geir Flycky-Pedersen

Has been involved and active in the dog world since the mid 1950ies.

Born and growing up in Bergen, Norway, but has lived most of his life in Sweden and England from where his family and dogs moved to the USA in 2005.

It all started with a bitch of mixed breeds, but then on to obedience with a GSD and a Boxer, which was the first dog he ever showed - in 1959.

He has, in partnership with his wife Gerd, bred, owned and shown English Cocker Spaniels, Greyhounds, Whippets, Airedale-, Norfolk-, Welsh -& Wire Fox Terriers. Breeding more than 100 champions in WFT alone.

He has also owned Great Dane and Pointer. Owned or handled winners in other breeds including a number of terriers like Kerry Blue and Lakeland terrier plus Min-, Standard- and Giant Schnauzers, Collies, Shelties, English Springer Spaniels, English Setters etc.

He was in 1974 the first in history to win Dog of the Year in both Norway & Sweden the same year -and did it again in 1980. Records which still stand.

He has also bred a WFT who was Dog of the Year in Sweden 1989 and has also from England exported dogs who have become Best in Show winners at prestigious shows in many countries (including Montgomery, USA), Dog of the Year in Norway etc.

On the same day in 1990 6 Louline WFTs won Best in Show in 5 different countries plus res Best in Show of more than 10000 dogs at Windsor UK.

He was the first to judge The International Junior Handler Final at Crufts in 1984 and did it again in 1992.

He was the first in history to win the prestigious UK Pup of The Year Final in London twice and judged the 25th Anniversary Final himself in 1997 when he with his wife was awarded "Tom Horner's Award of Excellence" for their contribution to the British World of Pedigree Dogs.

He has judged in most (old) European Countries, a number of terrier breeds at Crufts plus the Terrier Group there in 2005.

He is approved to judge the Terrier Group plus All Breed Best in Show in the UK.

In the USA he currently judges Best in Show, the Terrier Group, a number of Working-, Hound-, Herding-, Sporting- and Non Sporting breeds plus 1 Toy Breed !

Plus last, but not least: Jr. Showmanship!
